

Horace Mann joins the Club!

DAS is pleased to announce the addition of

to the list of approved providers for the Retirement Investors' Club (RIC).

Effective July 2010, Horace Mann, who was an approved provider for 2009, will join the five previously announced providers to offer investments to RIC plan participants. Participants may begin contributing to the new Horace Mann product in late July.

Please contact your local Horace Mann representative for more information.